

Autumn Song

A Song Cycle

Poetry set to music by a jazz-influenced American composer from the poems of RAINER MARIA RILKE and TENNESSEE WILLIAMS

Music by GEORGE MAURER ~ Compiled and directed by JEFF HALL-FLAVIN

"Imagine George Gershwin coming to town with some Broadway musicians, along with Hugh Jackman and Michael Crawford. It was that good." (Columbus Dispatch)

What

65-minute blend of jazz, art song, gospel and sophisticated pop
Dramatic "musical conversation" between two famous writers
No dialogue, just the poetry of Rilke and Williams set to music
Minimal lighting and scenery

Who

2 Actor-singers
5-piece jazz ensemble: piano, bass, drums, cello, woodwinds
3 support team: director, designer, stage manager

Where

theaters & concert halls churches, synagogues, schools & universities festivals & private events

Has been seen in

Provincetown, Massachusetts: Theater Festival
Minneapolis, Minnesota: Jazz Club, Music Series, Churches
Columbus, Mississippi: Concert Hall
Berlin, Germany: Private Event

"Like a Broadway production, both actors were able to swell and fill the vast auditorium of Town Hall with both presence and accomplished voices." (Provincetown Banner)

Media Contact

Dana Drazenovich
DDRAZENOVIC@csbsju.edu
+1 320 420 5391

Production Contact

Jef Hall-Flavin
jef.hall.flavin@gmail.com
+1 612 385 7965